What is a make-up chair?

A make-up chair, also known as a director's chair, is a foldable and easily transportable chair used by make-up artists. To work effectively, the make-up artist needs a chair with a higher seat and a back that allows the client's face to be a little lower than their own.

How to choose a makeup chair?

When choosing a makeup chair, consider the following: Make sure that the company guarantees a supply of spare parts for at least 10 years. Aluminum makeup chairs are recommended for those who are always working with a suitcase because they are lightweight and scratch-resistant. Casual Home 24 offers models with built-in armrests and footrests for added comfort and support.

How long does a makeup chair typically last?

A good makeup chair can last for 10 years or more. Over time, you may want to change your logo or lose a protective pad. Ensure that the company you buy from guarantees a supply of spare parts for at least 10 years.

Is an office chair comfortable?

Office chairs are pleasant to look at and offer great comfort thanks to their thick seat and waterfall edge. They are no longer only used in offices, but also in nail salons, car workshops, and shops to help busy workers achieve maximum comfort in the performance of their duties.
